Lexington unveils CopaCabana from Tommy Bahama Home
Where Resort Living Inspires Exceptional Design

HIGH POINT, NC – Discerning clients today are looking for more than furniture – they’re focused on experiences, memories, and exploration. Interior design has the unique ability to transform their home into a canvas of self-expression, channeling that spirit of travel and discovery into everyday living. CopaCabana from Tommy Bahama Home captures that vision, reflecting the aesthetic and drama of the world’s most captivating resorts without ever leaving home. The new collection will be unveiled at the High Point Market, October 24-29 in the Lexington Home Brands showroom at 1300 National Highway.

“At its core, great interior design tells a story,” said Phil Haney, President and CEO of Lexington Home Brands. “It’s about creating a narrative within the space we inhabit that reflects who we are and what inspires us. The Tommy Bahama brand has always been masterful in translating lifestyle into design. CopaCabana fuses casual contemporary styling with the energy and immersive experience of an international resort, with a focus on three elements – materials, design and attitude. Materials offer a fresh, lighter tone with an emphasis on texture. Design embraces clean architectural lines, adding contemporary castings and luxury touches like champagne silver leaf. Attitude in the presentation captures the verve of destination travel. The result is a collection that transports you to a place you simply don’t want to leave.”

Designs in CopaCabana are crafted from quartered white oak in a light alabaster finish. Ivory cerusing highlights the natural grain character, blending elegance with authenticity. Custom hardware features a rich champagne finish, while metal bases on signature items sparkle in champagne silver leaf. Clean architectural lines are paired with soft geometric forms highlighted by contemporary textural patterns incorporated into the designs.

A curated assortment of upholstered seating features beautifully tailored contemporary styling. New silhouettes include two sofa designs, an exceptional sectional series, and multiple lounge chairs. Fabric introductions emphasize textural surface interest and a bold color palette, taking a cue from nature, including juniper greens and soft earth tones. The light alabaster finish on the casegoods portfolio offers an elegant neutral backdrop for dramatic textile jewel tones of garnet, amber, and sapphire.

“This market, we’re celebrating the 25th anniversary of Tommy Bahama Home,” continued Haney. “It continues to be one of the most recognized and powerful brands in the industry due to its unique ability to convey an aspirational lifestyle story in each collection. Those stories have proven highly effective in connecting with the priorities of affluent clients. The brand promise has never been more relevant in defining today’s casual, contemporary approach to luxury living.”

CopaCabana will debut at the High Point Market, October 24-29 in the Lexington Home Brands showroom, open daily from 8:00 am until 6:00 pm. Complimentary parking is available at the showroom campus, and lunch is served daily. The company will host a special buyer and designer reception on Sunday afternoon from 4-7:00 pm with cocktails and appetizers.

Private transportation departs every ten minutes from the Lexington Design Studio in downtown High Point to the main showroom and back, operating daily from 8:00 am until 6:00 pm or until the last guest is served. The Design Studio is located at the corner of Commerce Street and Wrenn, directly across from the IHFC building and the main transportation terminal.
